columns our fair readers will see that this is "opening day" at Mrs. HUNEKEN'S Fashionable Millinery Establishment, over Ufferhardt & Campsen s store, corner King and Market streets. ----

TRIAL OF THE RIOTERS .- The Provost Marshal was engaged yesterday morning in hearing the evidence in this case. Five witnesses were cxamined, but as there are nearly five times that number, the case will not be concluded for some

FAILURE OF THE MAILS.—No mail was received last night north of Wilmington, an accident having occurred on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad. The regularity with which these failures occur is extremely refreshing, and we are now agreeably disappointed when the mails arrive two days conscentively.

ARREST .- We learn that three white men, in the custody of the military, arrived in this city yesterday from Aiken. They were arrested on a charge of being concerned in the lynching of the negroes who killed Col. STEADMAN. These negroes were in the charge of the Sheriff, who was conveying them to the jail, when he was set up in by a band of men disguised for the occasion, who took the negroes and hung them. It is presumed that the affair will be investigated by the military authorities.

UNITED STATES COURT-Hon. GEO. S. BRYAN. presiding .- J. H. BALDWIN US. C. A. L. LAMAR. Suit for the substitution of records lost during the late war. HENRY BUIST, Esq., argued in favor of the substitution, and A. G. MAGRATH, Esq.,

The District Attorney has not yet arrived, but is daily expected, as there are many criminal cases connected with the violation of the Revenue Laws, and the distilling of liquors; also the case of homicide which took place at Castle Pinckney. --0--

CORRECTION.-In our report of Governor ORR's speech yesterday, we inadvertently stated, that the SHERMAN Bill disfranchised 1800 persons in Anderson District, S. C. What his Excellency meant and did say, was that in Anderson District the proportion of those disqualified was to the entire number of white voters in the District as one in eighteen. If the same ratio obtains throughout the State, the number of citizens disqualified under the Reconstruction Act is about 2000.

Mr. W. Ric Sthe Middle Georgia Mews, published in Madison, Ga., paid us a visit yesterday evening He is stopping at the Mills House, and expects to be in the city till Saturday. Any of our merchants desirous of advertising in the up country of our sister State will do well to see Mr. RICE.

Mr. R. informs us that the fruit in that part of Georgia is pretty generally killed. There was a city. heavy frost on Tuesday morning as far South as Augusta. There is considerable distress in Middle and Upper Georgia-provisions very scarce, and prospects none of the brightest.

ARREST OF A DEFAULTEB .- An individual who has been figuring extensively in the South, and particularly in this State, was arrested recently on the charge of defalcation and theft. He formerly held the position of Paymaster's Clerk, and took advantage of the situation to appropriate $180,000 of the money to his own uses. The dishonest clerk succeeded in escaping, and the Paymaster was cashiered for the deficiency in his accounts. Since that event the Northern Detectives have been steadily engaged in tracking the thief, but have only recently succeeded in spotting him. He had purchased a plantation near Edisto, and was living in the full enjoyment of his ill-gotten wealth when surprised by the detectives.

FREUNDSCHAFTSBUND.-Those of our German friends was have the entree of this Club, will be interested to learn that an entertainment is to be given at the Hall in Society street, this evening The programme promises well: It is as follows: 1. Instrumental Trio : "Romanza," Keisiger. 2. Chorus, ZEDTLER. 8. Solo for the Flute, STRAN-RIERA, 4. Soprano Solo, from SCHUBERT,

The play of the evening is "Paris in Pommern, a sort of roaring farce, though it is called a Vaudeville, received with loud marks of approbation. when performed last year, and we feel assured it will be given to-night with even more colat. It is repeated at the earnest request of many of the members.

Tableaux Vivants are to succeed the comedy, and then dancing. We have no doubt our friends will have a good time.

THE WEBSTER ELEMENTARY READER, designed to follow Webster's Elementary Spelling Book. New York: D. APPLETON & Co. 1867.

This is the title of a neat little schoolbook, sent us by Mr. JOHN RUSSELL, King street, illustrated throughout. It begins with the Alphabet, beautifully illustrated, followed by short, easy and interesting reading lessons; then come lessons containing longer and harder words. After about the first hundred pages, the spelling lessons are omitted. and the blance of the book is devoted exclusively to instruct a and interesting reading matter. All of the lessons contain precepts or examples of virtue, morality, industry, or encouragement to the earnest pursuit of a true aim in life. Sectarian, political, and sectional controversies are totally VERDANCY.-The 1st of April passed almost unnoticed in the city, few practical jokes being perpetrated, the mass of the people having politics on the brain which prevented their thinking of any lighter subjects. There were some, however, who followed the time-honored practice of making fools of all they met, and not satisfied with the day set apart for this purpose have continued to sell all whom they meet. The failure of the Northern mail yesterday was immediately turned to a good account by the news dealers, and several old copies of the Heraid and other papers were sold to the unsuspecting. The news boys rushed frantically about yelling, "Here's your New York Herald," and the general desire to learn the latest intelligence soon brought them purchasers. "It is an ill wind that blows no one good," and we congratulate the news venders on their successful sell.

MAYOR'S COURT, April 3 .- Peter Norris, a colored youth, who helped himself to a piece of black cambric from the counter of a dry goods store kept by a lady, was imprisoned ten days. An individual, whose chimney had violated a outrageous conduct. An old veteran, at present attached to the Barleycorn Artillery as sponger, and who had received a severe wound in a late engagement, was fined

$5 for falling down where people had to pass over Limus Singleton, a young man of color, who had the misfortune to loose a padlock of immense value, and who went into the room of one Frank

Gadaden to search for it, and took a fancy shirt by mistake, was imprisoned for ten days. A black boy, who was detected in putting bricks on the track of the street railroad, was sent to the body," use this incomparable preventive and restora-Provest Marsh

ARCHITECTURE.—The inhabitants of the upper wards have not been idle, but have been building up their waste places and improving the houses that escaped the war and the fires. As wooden buildings can still be erected in that part of the city they have sprung up with a marvellous rapidity compared with the slow growth of brick and mortar in the down town section. These wooden houses are not very ornamental in theirdesign, and will not improve the appearance of the street except by filling up the vacant lots. They are usually built on a stereotyped plan, two stories high, with a small brick foundation, and the eye is often with a small brick foundation, and the eye is often wearied with the sameness of the scenery. The hasty manner in which these houses are constructed necessarily makes them frail, and one is now being built at the corner of Bogard and Rutledge streets, in which the architect has neglected to be devoted to General Intelligence—Political, Commercial, Social, Literary, and Religious—with a Department of Agriculture, including the Field, the Orchard, the Vineyard, and the Garden. A News summary, to contain a digest of the important events of the week, will occupy a p tion or the paper, and particular attention will be given to the unsettled question of Labor, a best adapted to our new condition, and the evelopinen of the resources of the country in Manufactures, Agriculture, Fruit-raising, and Vine-growing.

Terms—$3 a year, in advance.

WE WOULD call the attention of purchasers to the advertisement of Mr. J. N. Robson, Agent for DUPONT'S Powder. He has a large and complete stock, which will always be kept up, and which he will daily daiver to any part of the city. The Messrs. Their establishment is one of the largest in the United States, capable of turning out one thousand kegs daily, with a capital o over two million dollars invested, thus giving a guarantee that purchasers can depend on what they get.
